Nature of complaint: Improper Police Procedure
Austin Police Officers Involved: Robert Kaiser AP4686	Unknown: <input type="checkbox"/>
Complaint: "Collision investigated by APD. Chief investigating officer Ryan West made only assumptions leading to gross misconceptions and inaccuracies in the investigation. Attached is the listing of the misconceptions/inaccuracies made by Officer West and his Assisting Officer Robert Kaiser, with supporting statements regarding the misconceptions/inaccuracies. Also included with this complaint is a copy of a Petition for an Order of Expunction regarding the citation that was issued by Officer West, #E17435491. All supporting documentation presented with the Petition is the same information that will support this complaint. The Austin Municipal Court dismissed the case on July 3, 2023 because neither the other driver nor either of the officers chose to appear. As a result I was unable to present any of my supporting evidence that the subsequent traffic collision and citation issuance were incorrectly perceived and inaccurate on behalf of both officers and the other driver. See all attached documentation. Located at: 13100 Dessau Rd/1500 Dessau Ridge Dr Complainant received a ticket during this interaction. Do you remember any details about the officer(s) you'd like to share? Officer Ryan West AP7517 Physical description: slender-facial hair wearing uniform on patrol car or motorcycle Officer Robert Kaiser AP4686 Physical description: bald-heavy set wearing uniform on patrol car or motorcycle Do you remember any details about witness(es) you'd like to share? Complainant's Name (if given):	Anonymous <input type="checkbox"/>
Nature of complaint: Follow-up by Detective or Officer
Austin Police Officers Involved: Joel Garcia AP9626	Unknown: <input type="checkbox"/>
Complaint: "I was involved in an accident where someone ran a red light. I called APD and several officers showed up. There was concern that the person who hit my vehicle might have been under the influence therefore a field sobriety test was completed. I never got to speak to the person who hit me, as he did not speak English, and we were never able to exchange information as the police kept us separate. I received "accident information exchange" paperwork with the person's name on it and was told an official report would be filed. I was under the impression that an accident report would be filed as this is what I was told. I ASSUMED WRONG. There were at least 4 officers at the scene, one was in training, and none of them filled out or filed a police report. The time period I had to wait, due to an officer in training, and needing to wait for a Spanish speaking officer, then only to find out that no one did their job is ridiculous. Due to office J. Garcia APD #9626 not filing a police report, my insurance carrier cannot determine fault (which was obvious as the person who hit me ran a red light. So NOW I will not be reimbursed for money that was paid out of pocket to fix my vehicle because Officer Garcia did not fulfill his job requirements and fill out a police report. I FIND THIS TO BE SO UNACCEPTABLE ON THE PART OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT. Why would I call someone if they are not going to do there job correctly. This sort of behavior would not be accepted at my job, not sure why it should be acceptable with a Police Department. I could have eventually gotten the information from the person on my own had I known that APD would do such a terrible job at the scene of the accident."

Nature of complaint: Improper Police Procedure
Austin Police Officers Involved: Mark Yaletchko AP81 32	Unknown: <input type="checkbox"/>
Complaint: "APD Officer Yaletchko #81 32 brought an adolescent male mental health patient with an intellectual disability to Dell Children's Medical Center ER today on POED #2321 60528. Officer Yaletchko #81 32 did not include the name or contact number for patient's guardian on POED form. I called APD dispatch and was connected to APD Officer Acosta #7754 who was very helpful and provided the name of the facility patient came from and the name and contact number for patient's mother. I then spoke with Officer Yaletchko #81 32 who stated he was efficient in telling a nurse the guardian information, however did not document this on patient's POED. I recommended guardian/caregiver/facility information always be included on POED in the future and he did not seem receptive to my recommendation. I questioned patient's initial nurse, [REDACTED] who stated Officer Yaletchko #81 32 told her someone from a grouphome was on the way. I then questioned patient's current nurse, [REDACTED] (patient quickly changed ER rooms after arrival), who stated she was not given guardian information as well. The patient's ER Social Worker called patient's mother with the contact information provided, and her number is not in service. Neither mother nor grouphome employee came to the ER."

Nature of complaint: Discourtesy or Improper Conduct
Austin Police Officers Involved: Steven Willis AP427	Unknown: <input type="checkbox"/>
Complaint: "I am a Taiwanese international student who recently graduated from the University of Texas at Austin. The Incident happend on August 5th, around 11:30 pm, in front of Wonder Bar in the Domain area, my friends and I had just gotten out of an Uber. A cop came up to me and asked, "Sir, what is in your hand?" I realized I was holding a seltzer and gave the drink to him, saying, "My bad, I'm sorry." Lieutenant(the cop): "I'll have to throw this away." Me: "Yeah, of course, my bad." My friends and I went into Wonder Bar. A bouncer approached me and said, "Hey, I just want to let you know, we work closely with the police, and an officer said you were giving him an attitude." (Insinuating the police can have me kicked out of the bar just because he doesn't like me) Me: "Um, what? And what did I do?" Bouncer: "That's what he told me, and just say you are sorry." So I went out, found the officer (Lieutenant) who took my drink. Me: "Hi, officer, I'm sorry, what happened?" Lieutenant: "I did not see anything." Me: "What's going on?" Officer Willis: "You gave him an attitude, you did the gesture, it was insulting." Me: "What gesture, and no, I did not do anything." Officer Willis: "So you are lying to me now?" Me: "I did not do such a thing." Officer Willis: "Why don't you own up and have some integrity? Stop lying. You wait till the Lieutenant turns and did the gesture." I felt scared and pressured to apologize. Me: "Sorry, officer, maybe I did some gestures, but it wasn't towards you guys." Officer Willis: "Ok." He escorted me back to the bar.

OFFICE OF POLICE OVERSIGHT

Back inside the bar, the more I thought about it, the more uncomfortable I felt for what had just happened. It's bad enough for being misunderstood, and it's worse for being called a liar, a coward, and a man with no integrity; it's the worst when someone calling you all that has weapons ready to use on you. I felt powerless. I'm living in a foreign country on my own, and it's scary for what could happen to me if they decided to abuse their power fully. I decided to get their name and number without aggravating anything. So I went out to talk to Officer Willis.

Me: "Hello, officer, I'm not from here, this is my first time interacting with a police officer, can I take a picture?"

We took a picture. [attached to complaint form --FC]

My friends and I went back into the bar. After some contemplating and typing what happened and how I felt on my phone, I decided to go out again to find Officer Willis.

Me: "Hey, you called me a man with no integrity." Officer Willis: "That bothers you?"

Me: "Yes, it does."

Officer Willis: "People get mad when someone questions their integrity."

Me: "I just need an apology."

Officer Willis: "Apology from whom?"

Me: "You."

Officer Willis: "No, I'm just doing my job."

Me: "You called me a man without fing integrity."

Officer Willis: "Back your ass off, we are not on the same level, I can take your ass to wherever I want. You are a coward who waits till Lieutenant turns his back on you and did the insulting gesture. You understand me?"

I turned to another officer and said, "Do you agree with what he just said?"

Random officer: "We don't care what you think." Me: "Lieutenant, hi, you did not see me doing anything, right? You agree with what Officer Willis just said?"

Lieutenant: "I agree with him 100 percent."

I left in frustration, anger, and disbelief. In frustration because I have no power in this country; in anger because I was called a liar and a coward; in disbelief because he said he has the power to "take you wherever I want."

Complaint: "She walked across the street to her neighbors and APD started to integrate her. She told them they could not question her and that she needed to talk to her attorney. The officer's behavior was very harassing and targeted. They asked for her ID, but they did not run a check on her ID because there is a missing person's report that was filed by her husband. Officer Williams and Officer Wright picked her up, so she started screaming because she is autistic and very preceptive to danger. Her emotional support dog, who is like her child, ran away. She was screaming her head off because they were about to murder her. Some neighbors caught the incident on video. The officers put her face down on the ground. They pulled her arm back, which is called a broken wing hit, so it was an assassination attempt. The officers laughed about squeezing the shit out of her because she actually defalcated on her shelf. The officers went thru her purse which was very unprofessional. They took her purse to another spot across the street, so they actually stole her purse. The complainant alleges the officers took their sweet ass time to hurt her arm even more. They arrested her and put her arms behind her back and would not uncuff her while the EMT was checking her. It was like they were Nazis and called her the dirty Jew, so it was very targeted and a hate crime. They took her to the hospital and Officer Wright, the one that broke her arm, was the only one that followed. Officer Wright sat in the room with her and kept watching the video of her screaming and you could actually hear her arm crack. She asked the nurses not to leave her in the room with Officer Wright because he was trying to kill her. She had to go to the bathroom and Officer Wright told her she had to leave the door cracked or a nurse would have to go with her. The complainant pulled her pants down and realized she had defecated on herself, that's how bad the police brutality was. She took her pants off and laid them on the trash can and kept wiping herself with wipes and laying them on the trash can because it was evidence. She told the officers it was evidence, but they did not take it with them. They were supposed to take her back two or four days later get a cast on her arm, but they did not. Her arm is crooked from the break. They took her straight to prison and never read her Miranda rights. They gave her a PR bond the first night. They kept changing the information about her arrest in the system. The first seven days they did not let her outside and after the 8th day, they let her take a shower, which was a cruel and unusual punishment which was turned into slavery. She was really confused. She is

She was screaming her head off because they were about to murder her. Some neighbors caught the incident on video. The officers put her face down on the ground. They pulled her arm back, which is called a broken wing hit, so it was an assassination attempt. The officers laughed about squeezing the shit out of her because she actually defalcated on her shelf. The officers went thru her purse which was very unprofessional. They took her purse to another spot across the street, so they actually stole her purse. The complainant alleges the officers took their sweet ass time to hurt her arm even more. They arrested her and put her arms behind her back and would not uncuff her while the EMT was checking her. It was like they were Nazis and called her the dirty Jew, so it was very targeted and a hate crime. They took her to the hospital and Officer Wright, the one that broke her arm, was the only one that followed. Officer Wright sat in the room with her and kept watching the video of her screaming and you could actually hear her arm crack. She asked the nurses not to leave her in the room with Officer Wright because he was trying to kill her. She had to go to the bathroom and Officer Wright told her she had to leave the door cracked or a nurse would have to go with her. The complainant pulled her pants down and realized she had defecated on herself, that's how bad the police brutality was. She took her pants off and laid them on the trash can and kept wiping herself with wipes and laying them on the trash can because it was evidence. She told the officers it was evidence, but they did not take it with them. They were supposed to take her back two or four days later get a cast on her arm, but they did not. Her arm is crooked from the break. They took her straight to prison and never read her Miranda rights. They gave her a PR bond the first night. They kept changing the information about her arrest in the system. The first seven days they did not let her outside and after the 8th day, they let her take a shower, which was a cruel and unusual punishment which was turned into slavery. She was really confused. The officer's behavior was very harassing and targeted. They asked for her ID, but they did not run a check on her ID because there is a missing person's report that was filed by her husband. Complaint: "On Wednesday, August 9, 2023, at approximately 1500 hrs. I was traveling northbound on I-35 frontage road. A blue Ford Explorer unmarked vehicle entered the frontage road within 100 ft in front of me while traveling at speeds of close to 50 mph causing myself and the vehicle behind me to slam on brakes and 3rd vehicle to swerve into the left lane as to not rear end the vehicle in front of it. The occupant of the vehicle, white male, black shirt sped off after I nearly hit his vehicle. The blue unmarked car came out of the carwash at the corner of Philonoma and Frontage and sped North to Brent Road. I assumed he was on a call and was forgiving of the incident. Shortly after I arrived at the IDEA Kyle school waiting to pick up my children when I saw the Blue unmarked Ford Explorer in the outside lane 2 to 3 cars behind me. I waited until I was able to park safely and waved down the officer driving the Blue unmarked vehicle. He stopped, rolled his window down, and I noticed he was not on duty. He had no duty belt, no badge, no uniform. I asked him if he had a card, he said he did not. I asked him if he could write his name, badge number, and the number of the unit he was driving as I needed the information to file a complaint. I began to explain to him the incident to which he told me "that did not happen" I explained to him not only when but where the incident occurred and also his path of travel after he sped away. He handed me a card and asked for my information, at the moment, after what had occurred, his nonchalant demeanor, and noticing he was not dressed in a uniform, I declined to identify for fear of retaliation against myself or my children, The card he provided indicated he was the rank of Lieutenant and his name is Christopher Juusola. I am not asking for extreme consequences, I just want accountability for his behavior and actions of recklessness driving putting myself, my autistic son, and other occupied vehicles with citizens at risk. His professionalism was very unbecoming of the standard that i'm sure you hold your officers to on and off duty. I was in no way aggressive with him and was wanting to just simply get his information to file a simple complaint. The musician, [REDACTED], was handcuffed and cited for.. what exactly I wouldn't know as playing a guitar outside while the amplifier is inside the venue isn't against the law and ultimately the guitar was severely damaged. As a musician who has faced police harassment on 6th street by overly aggressive cops in the past, I know this is not an isolated incident and is indicative of a pattern the lower level cops who are put on 6th street patrol routinely partake in. Whether it's citing clubs for sound, harassing and threatening musicians loading into a venue with citations, or just in general not having the common human decency of being a nice person. I get it, being a cop is difficult, but people like officer Spees don't help your department, your reputation, or public trust in what are supposed to be first and foremost, public servants who are payed by the public they're supposed to serve and protect. This kind of bullying has to be addressed. I've experienced it first hand and I know lots of my colleagues have as well. Do something about it."

Complaint: "She is 57 years old and a law-abiding citizen and has never been afraid of a police officer before this incident. The officer was so over the top and angry and she was very fearful. She almost started recording but she was worried it would further provoke the officer. She was sitting in traffic at a light on 183 southbound. As she started moving forward there was a motorcycle officer turning onto 183. She was going 60mph when the officer got in front of her and slowed down so she changed lanes. She was talking to someone on the blue tooth when she saw the officer waving his right arm up and down and yelling at her. The officer motioned for her to roll down her window. When she rolled down her window the officer screamed at her "Really, you are going to pass me in a construction zone?" They are literally driving 60mph next to each other. She told him she was not speeding. When the light in front of them turned red the officer motioned to her where to stop. He kept screaming at her. He was an African American male, and his last name was MacDonald or McDonald. She continued to tell him she was not speeding. The officer was so out of control and still screaming at her. Out of frustration, she said, "Dude I am not speeding". The officer told her "Yes you are I could pull you over and give you a ticket right now". He told her "This is a newly calibrated bike, and you are speeding". The person on her blue tooth could hear the officer yelling at her. She changed lanes trying to get away from him. She has never been afraid of a police officer until that happened. She has had one ticket in her entire life. As she drove away, she could tell he was still looking at her. Her honest thought was that she felt sorrow for anyone who interacts with that officer because he is going to lose it. If she was really doing something wrong, just pull her over and don't scream at her. The officer's behavior was so uncalled for, and she thinks it needs to be brought to his attention that it was not ok. The complainant requested the complaint be sent to an APD supervisor for a callback."

Complaint: "Office of Police Oversight, I am [REDACTED] Registered Behavioral Therapist – Resident of San Marcos, Texas. I had a harrowing experience with an Austin Police Officer. I was at a Sonic Drive-Thru pulling forward to exit the restaurant. A white Ford F-250 truck was in the path to exit the Sonic. I lightly tapped my horn, for the truck to pull forward. The truck did not pull forward, so I maneuvered around him. Once I was around the truck, I gave him an unkind gesture (flipped him off). Turns out he was a very tall large man, Mark Lakes (off duty police officer) with his [REDACTED] in the truck – but I cannot tell any of this initially. After flipping him off, I pulled away from Sonic. Shortly from pulling away, I see that same white truck driving very close behind me. I stop at the stop sign, and while turning to take a right; the truck speeds up in front of me and cuts me off from the highway at a 45 degree angle with his truck. I am appalled and baffled, by this driver's actions. Then suddenly a very large angry man, not using his words comes out of the vehicle. I immediately start reversing my car. As I am reversing, the man punches my front driver side window, and hits my rear driver side window with his forearm. Frantically, I dial 911 and proceed to evade the man by turning onto the nearby street. I told 911 "I had flipped off a guy and he is chasing me". The truck shoots onto the highway to cut me off again at a 45 degree angle at the following stop sign. He chased me cutting me off on three occasions, and I was able to reverse and try to evade him until the 3rd time. When he blocked me the 3rd time he came up to car yelling "you hit my car and my kid is in there". Slammed a business card with his name Mark Lakes APD, on my windshield. I had the doors locked but when my car went into park, it unlocked and he pulled open my driver side door and lunged into my vehicle. I scrambled to the passenger side evading my SUV, and as he enters my car he crushes the interior of the door handle with his arm. He scared me silly; to the point where I thought I was going to be physically harmed or kidnapped. Police arrived in response to my long hysterical 911 call. I found out from responding officers that he is indeed an Austin off duty police officer. Stating that: I hit

Complaint: "Hi, I called police to my old residence many times because I was being stalked by neighbors nearby. APD sent over a dozen cops to their door but they never opened it. I reported it in every way that I could to receive no help at all whatsoever. I asked the apartment management for help and instead of in any way understanding that "the absence of evidence when no policework is being done past knocking on the door, is never the evidence of absense" they made up a lie that I was crazy on my birthday. They asked the police to go to my door on my birthday and accuse me of insanity and they obliged, thereby creating a malicious lie about me throughout the community as many of my neighbors heard this in the public corridor. This includes the stalkers who very much enjoyed committing a hate crime against me as they were never even once intercepted to be reprimanded. I am extremely ashamed because the police ridiculed me as well as the stalkers. They enabled everyone to harass and stalk me in my home and didn't seem to do any police work to attempt to locate them other than knock on their door and take that as "good enough." It should be illegal for police to be messengers for malicious lies in the community and I hope that will never happen again to anyone. The only reason that it doesn't qualify as a hate crime, is that I don't have the electronic correspondence. The apartment manager told me they made up a lie about me over the phone. The police spread the lie and that should never happen again. The stalkers were never intercepted and are probably currently stalking someone in an attempt to commit a hate crime because no one ever stopped them. I hope that you will reform the police so that they never accuse a queer person of insanity on their birthday ever again. I had a legal name change but I will never trust them again or open the door for them at all, since they seem to side with whichever party doesn't open the door for them. I am extremely ashamed of APD and a few months ago I was meeting with the hate crime coordinator for coffee but now I don't know if I will even reply to him... I don't see how in any way harassing me further was good practice to investigate stalking. I didn't see any investigation happen at all, other than attacking my character for asking for help."

Complaint: "I am a [REDACTED] international student who recently graduated from the University of Texas at Austin. The Incident happend on August 5th, around 11:30 pm, in front of Wonder Bar in the Domain area, my friends and I had just gotten out of an Uber. A cop came up to me and asked, "Sir, what is in your hand?" (Insinuating the police can have me kicked out of the bar just because he doesn't like me) Me: "Um, what? And what did I do?" Bouncer: "That's what he told me, and just say you are sorry." So I went out, found the officer (Lieutenant) who took my drink. Me: "Hi, officer, I'm sorry, what happened?" Lieutenant: "I did not see anything." Me: "What's going on?" Officer Willis: "You gave him an attitude, you did the gesture, it was insulting." Me: "What gesture, and no, I did not do anything." Officer Willis: "So you are lying to me now?" Me: "I did not do such a thing." Officer Willis: "Why don't you own up and have some integrity? Stop lying. You wait till the Lieutenant turns and did the gesture." I felt scared and pressured to apologize. Me: "Sorry, officer, maybe I did some gestures, but it wasn't towards you guys." Officer Willis: "Ok." He escorted me back to the bar.

Back inside the bar, the more I thought about it, the more uncomfortable I felt for what had just happened. It's bad enough for being misunderstood, and it's worse for being called a liar, a coward, and a man with no integrity; it's the worst when someone calling you all that has weapons ready to use on you. I felt powerless. I'm living in a foreign country on my own, and it's scary for what could happen to me if they decided to abuse their power fully. I decided to get their name and number without aggravating anything. So I went out to talk to Officer Willis.

Me: "Hello, officer, I'm not from here, this is my first time interacting with a police officer, can I take a picture?"

We took a picture. [attached to complaint form --FC]

My friends and I went back into the bar. After some contemplating and typing what happened and how I felt on my phone, I decided to go out again to find Officer Willis.

Me: "Hey, you called me a man with no integrity." Officer Willis: "That bothers you?"

Me: "Yes, it does."

Officer Willis: "People get mad when someone questions their integrity."

Me: "I just need an apology."

Officer Willis: "Apology from whom?"

Me: "You."

Officer Willis: "No, I'm just doing my job."

Me: "You called me a man without fing integrity."

Officer Willis: "Back your ass off, we are not on the same level, I can take your ass to wherever I want. You are a coward who waits till Lieutenant turns his back on you and did the insulting gesture. You understand me?"

I turned to another officer and said, "Do you agree with what he just said?"

Random officer: "We don't care what you think." Me: "Lieutenant, hi, you did not see me doing anything, right? You agree with what Officer Willis just said?"

Lieutenant: "I agree with him 100 percent."

I left in frustration, anger, and disbelief. In frustration because I have no power in this country; in anger because I was called a liar and a coward; in disbelief because he said he has the power to "take you wherever I want."

Complaint: "Someone tried to break into his mother's apartment. They ended up stealing her fan. The person tried to break into someone else's apartment. That person called the police and the police never talked to his mom. Why did the officer never take a statement from his mom after they were told someone tried to break into her apartment? They did not care about what had just happened. He also has a video. The complainant requested to come in and file a formal complaint and affidavit. Report #2023-9009117 Ref.#: 2323352"

Complaint: "Her son was killed in a motorcycle accident. She questioned the report from day one. She tried to contact the detective multiple times, but she did get a call back until 8 days later. When they got the 91-page report from the detective, none of it made sense. It does not add up. Every time she reached out to the detective and the Sargeant they blew her off. She was listed as an emergency contact with DMV, but she was not contacted right away. Doctors told the officers they were looking for the next of kin. The officers had her son's driver's license. One of the officers told her that the lines on the road are frowned upon when they are crossed but it is not prohibited. October 24th was not her son's death date---why was that put in the report? She needs some answers. The complainant requested to come in and file a formal complaint and affidavit."

Complaint: "She walked across the street to her neighbors and APD started to integrate her. She told them they could not question her and that she needed to talk to her attorney. The officer's behavior was very harassing and targeted. They asked for her ID, but they did not run a check on her ID because there is a missing person's report that was filed by her husband. Officer Williams and Officer Wright picked her up, so she started screaming because she is [REDACTED] and very preceptive to danger. Her emotional support dog, who is like her child, ran away. She was screaming her head off because they were about to murder her. Some neighbors caught the incident on video. The officers put her face down on the ground. They pulled her arm back, which is called a broken wing hit, so it was an assassination attempt. The officers laughed about squeezing the shit out of her because she actually defalcated on her shelf. The officers went thru her purse which was very unprofessional. They took her purse to another spot across the street, so they actually stole her purse. The complainant alleges the officers took their sweet ass time to hurt her arm even more. They arrested her and put her arms behind her back and would not uncuff her while the EMT was checking her. It was like they were Nazis and called her the dirty Jew, so it was very targeted and a hate crime. They took her to the hospital and Officer Wright, the one that broke her arm, was the only one that followed. Officer Wright sat in the room with her and kept watching the video of her screaming and you could actually hear her arm crack. She asked the nurses not to leave her in the room with Officer Wright because he was trying to kill her. She had to go to the bathroom and Officer Wright told her she had to leave the door cracked or a nurse would have to go with her. The complainant pulled her pants down and realized she had defecated on herself, that's how bad the police brutality was. She took her pants off and laid them on the trash can and kept wiping herself with wipes and laying them on the trash can because it was evidence. She told the officers it was evidence, but they did not take it with them. They were supposed to take her back two or four days later get a cast on her arm, but they did not. Her arm is crooked from the break. They took her straight to prison and never read her Miranda rights. They gave her a PR bond the first night. They kept changing the information about her arrest in the system. The first seven days they did not let her outside and after the 8th day, they let her take a shower, which was a cruel and unusual punishment which was turned into slavery. She was really confused. She is supposed to be under a protective order by the governor. Officer Lopez came to her house, and she thinks she is a lesbian, it was very invasive. The complainant wants APD to be aware of her complaint but does not want APD to make any contact with her.

Complaint: "He works on the apartment property to enforce rules on the tenant's lease. An off-duty officer was walking his dog, but the dog was not on a lease. He let the officer know his dog needed to be on a lease. The officer became very aggressive and threatening. The officer had an extreme attitude about the situation. The officer started making threats and calling him names. The officer came out of nowhere being extremely aggressive and extremely threatening for no reason. The complainant's wife is afraid to go out on her own to walk their dog because the officer knows what their dog looks like. It was really a strange experience, and he feels the police need to be aware of that kind of behavior even if the officer is off duty. I never assaulted [REDACTED] and he said I didn't assault him either. He also filed the paperwork with the lawyer's investigators saying I didn't harm him. I was handled very professional by the APD. There were 2 women and 4 men handling me. The Male cop and female cops were very aggressive with me. They bruised my ribs and pelvis areas on both sides. I have pictures of my bruises. I feel that the cops handled me very poorly. And [REDACTED] lied about me assaulting him. [REDACTED] is an alcoholic, a drug addict, a manic depressive and a master manipulator. He's been in and out of rehab several times and had no where to go. I was talking with him saying he needed to make other arrangements and find another place to stay. He needed a place to stay and the cops said he has squatters rights and is a resident of the apartment. I'm trying to get him out of my apartment. I got him out for a week or 2, however, the leasing office said they were going to assist with getting him off the property. They haven't assisted. I've tried getting him out. I'm not able to. [REDACTED] doesn't think he did anything wrong. He said he was trying to help me. He called my job badmouthing me to both the cops and my boss. The police took [REDACTED] word. Complaint: "I'm calling to report a police officer turning on his lights to get around traffic at the intersection of Krebs and South Congress. The green light, so he went into the turning lane - the middle lane, turned his lights on and sped up. He was going probably about 50-60 miles an hour on that street right there and then once he got past the light and past a few cars he just turned off the lights and went into normal traffic not driving in any way hurried after that. So it really didn't seem like he was in a hurry other than he just wanted to get his jollies and and flex, which is really disappointing because I believe we need a lot more police in this city crime is rampant. But police need to set a good example. This was probably at 1:10 PM today August 12th again at the corner and the intersection of South Congress and Krebs Cruiser number 0153 was going southbound. Then merged on 2290 West, you know thanks bye."

Complaint: "I was driving down Felix as officer Kirchberg badge number 9241 passed me. I seen him turn around and speed right behind me. I came to a stop sign, stopped behind the 2 lines. I get onto Vargas and he speeds up behind me and hits his lights. He comes to my window and looks shocked to see me(a female) driving. He has pulled my husband over in our vehicle twice before for no apparent reason. He said do you know why I'm pulling you over? I replied no sir. He said you crossed the double lines back there. I told him dude I seen you turn around and speed up, I know for a fact I didn't because I seen you behind me. He said i have you on camera. How does he have me on camera if he's behind me and just because he has a badge what he says is correct. He asks for my license I give it to him. He tells my son who is a MINOR to put his hands on his face. I told him not to say a word to my son that he is a minor and only 15. He calls in my plates and vin number and goes back to his truck to run my I.d. He comes back and asks me if I have reported my license plate stolen I told him no. He said can you turn the car off for me, I told him I'm going to roll the windows down because i do have my kids in here. He said no get out the car. Mind you my dash is ready 108 degrees outside and I have my 15 year old in the front and my 9 year old in the back freaking out crying. I get out the car and he told me to turn around and put my hands behind my back, I ask him why he said that my car has been reported stolen and cuffs me. He put the handcuffs so tight I have bruises on my wrist. I told him how is my car reported stolen if you've pulled my husband over in it twice. He said I don't know who your husband. They got my son out the car and tried searching him. HES A MINOR AND I DID NOT GIVE THEM ANY CONSENT TO TOUCH HIM!! I yelled at them he's a minor do not touch my son! He goes to his car then He comes back about 10 minutes later. I ask him if he can loosen the cuffs because they're very tight and I've never been handcuffed. He said actually I'm going to take you out of them because the dispatcher got your license plate number wrong. She changed the 0 to a 2. Sounds like a bunch of crap to me honestly. I told him so you did all this for what then, did you not think I have a license or insurance. Did you think you were gonna do a drug bust or what cause at this point it was all for nothing. You have my kids hysterical and traumatized now for NOTHING!This officer has harassed us non stop and we're tired of it! He's followed us all the way from the store to our house and just looked at us. Yes we may live in a bad neighborhood but we DO NOT sell drugs, have drugs and we are not bad people. At this point he's 1 harassing us.2 stereotyping us and 3 thinking that we won't use our voice to be heard because he thought oh they don't have a license or insurance and probably have drugs. My husband and I work very hard for everything we have and we're over him harassing us and stopping us because he feels like it. We're tired of him using his badge and thinking nobody will ever report him. My daughter is [REDACTED] terrified of the police because of him. All of it wasn't necessary and I will make sure I'm heard! I asked her to go to heb with me yesterday, her favorite place and she said no mom I don't want to go that way because what if that cop tries taking you to jail again. She's 9. She should think oh the cops are here to help but no she sees that there are bad cops out there that will judge and profile us because we're Hispanic and live in the hood. It's so sad. My 15 year old said mom I've seen stuff like being profiled and stereotyped on movies but to know it really happens in real life and it happened to us scares me. He had no business doing what he did! I should have NEVER been pulled over or in handcuffs! We want this officer to leave us alone and to stop harassing us, stop profiling and stereotyping us!

Also 2 other officers come for back up. Like I did something so bad. It's sad that we're suppose to trust in the police to feel protected but every time we see them we're scared because of nonsense like this.

Complaint: "I have been trying to get in contact with ANYONE who can help me, and I have received no information, no calls, nothing. I am being told that the only way to get my husband out of jail is to pay $500 to a bail bondsman, who won't do anything since I haven't lived at my address for 12 months, or $5000 because the judge decided that's what he's worth. My husband was essentially kidnapped and being held for ransom. I was the victim, and there are no victim services available to me. I will never call the police for anything ever again if this is going to be how things are handled."
