

OFFICE OF POLICE OVERSIGHT

NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

---

January 6, 2023

ICMS #: 2023-0001

On December 30, 2022, the OPO received a phone complaint.

The complainant alleges: There was an attempted robbery and illegal entry by another apartment tenant's guest. When she called the police, Officer [REDACTED] arrived to the scene that day. There was another officer with her. Officer [REDACTED] was trying to get her to come out of her apartment because they had received a call or complaint from someone who said that she had a knife. First of all, she told them that she would not be leaving her baby unattended to address this matter. Secondly, she did have a knife on the counter where she was unloading groceries and cooking. More importantly, there was a new female tenant moving in who had two of her friends going through the shoeboxes from Dillard's at her front door and trying to open her door at [REDACTED] in the morning. Her neighbor caught this on camera. And then, these people entered her apartment while she was there and had just given birth to her baby girl. She told the officer, "Give me a police report number or what." Officer [REDACTED] said, "Hold on, give me a second." She doesn't know if Officer [REDACTED] went downstairs to talk to the property manager or what but she came back and may have given her a police report that day because she normally asks for it. She should've asked for a sergeant that day as well but she had just moved in literally 24 hours before given birth and had her baby three days later. The property manager gave her a 24 hour notice as well as the other person, and the other person took off. She has the police report and the video and everything so they can't give her that notice. She was focused on her baby's safety and never asked for a sergeant or followed up on that.
