On May 10, 2022, the OPO received an online complaint.

The complainant alleges: Hello, at approximately [REDACTED] I was biking south on [REDACTED]. as I approached [REDACTED] the bike lane ended, so I signaled to enter the general travel lane. Instead of letting me merge, the officer driving what I believe was vehicle [REDACTED], revved their engine and passed me aggressively, only to turn left a couple blocks later. This type of driving does not align with the City's safety goals and had I finished merging, I could have been seriously injured.
