NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

March 10, 2023

ICMS #: 2023-0201

On March 7, 2023, the OPO received a phone complaint.

The complainant alleges: His daughter is married to Austin police Officer [REDACTED] badge [REDACTED]. Officer [REDACTED] and the complainant's daughter are going through a bad divorce and should not be living together. At [REDACTED] in the morning of [REDACTED] someone tried to kick in the door. He thinks it was the husband of another police officer that Officer [REDACTED] is having an affair with. His daughter was asleep at the time. The next morning the children told his daughter what happened so she confronted Officer [REDACTED] but he would not provide her any information because he did not want her to find out that the husband of the girl that he is having the affair with tried to kick down the door. He is putting the children and his daughter in danger. The complainant called [REDACTED] County to confirm the incident was true. There were four [REDACTED] County officers that responded that morning. The complainant spoke to 2 of the officers. The complainant has filed a previous complaint against Officer [REDACTED] and they found reason to give him 3 days off because he did commit a policy violation, but this is much more serious than that. The complainant called Sgt [REDACTED], Officer [REDACTED] commander at [REDACTED], so his commander is aware. He spoke to [REDACTED] County Deputy [REDACTED], and he said [REDACTED] County and Travis County are probably talking to figure out what is going on and the incident was identified as a trespassing/unwanted person on the property. When someone tries to kick down your door it is a home invasion. He thinks someone is trying to whitewash the whole thing. Officer [REDACTED] is an officer and has a gun and if someone is kicking down your door you are going to shoot them—but he didn't because he knew this person and this man is the irate pissed off husband of the person he is having an affair with. The whole thing was downplayed. Officer [REDACTED] is mentally and physically abusing his daughter and the complainant has had to call CPS before. Officer [REDACTED] needs a mental evaluation. Officer [REDACTED] thinks he is untouchable because of the police shortage, and his 10-year tenure with APD and he thinks they are going to sweep this under the rug, and everything will be fine. IA is familiar with the transcript of the last time the complainant filed a complaint.
