Complaint: The Office of Police Oversight received a phone complaint from [REDACTED] [REDACTED] complainant, stating that this incident occurred sometime between [REDACTED]. The complainant states that she was visiting Austin from Michigan and was walking near the protest, on other side of street from [REDACTED], and saw mace being sprayed and turned back to walk towards car. She states that, as she was walking, she got hit in the back of the arm and her arm is now infected. She states that she went to the ER and she has a huge arm mass that the doctor said will probably never go away. She states that she is not sure if it was a rubber bullet or a bean bag and is assuming it was rubber bullet.
