NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

April 7, 2023

ICMS #: 2023-0279

On March 31, 2023, the OPO received an email complaint.

The complainant alleges: Constituent, also the general manager for [REDACTED] on [REDACTED] reports calling 9-1-1 [REDACTED] (somewhere between [REDACTED]) on a violent individual outside the [REDACTED] building and police officers neglecting to arrive at the scene. See below:

"Here are the notes from our concierge last night regarding a violent person outside of our building and police never responded. This is all too common.

[REDACTED] Went outside for about 45 minutes. Noticed a man walk into the parking garage and I immediately heard yelling and saw him throw his shoes from the inside area of the parking garage entrance. I met another man there who stated seeing the man beating his chest and the metal doors on the inside of that entrance area. I then followed the yelling to make sure the man didnt come back onto property. He ended up on the [REDACTED] side of our building and began wrestling the tall cones on the street and rolling on the ground yelling. I asked him to please not come back to the area or Police would be called for trespassing. He nervously stated he would leave but remained rolling and yelling. I had no choice but to call police because at that moment his life and others were in danger as multiple cars nearly hit him. Police never showed up to the area but I kept eyes on the guy. He ended up going into the [REDACTED] area across the street and beat on everything he could on the way there and yelled at multiple people as he rolled on the ground again. I simply stood outside with flashlight now as a deterrent and luckily he ended up just scooting along [REDACTED] on the opposite side of the street from our building. Will maintain vigilance via cameras to assure no further issue."
