On September 6, 2022, the OPO received an email complaint.

"Can you please contact the officer that you sent to contact me last time? It's ongoing it's it hasn't stopped. Is there some way that I may meet with you and that officer physically? I'm in fear of my life I don't know what else to do."

"[REDACTED] drone is connected to my mind as well she is supposedly supposed to be helping me but I need physical proof because she won't send an officer out here physically to take the report all of this is happening in my mind. Please help me. I'm ready to talk now. Even if you can have the officer that contacted me last time check my phone is tapped and also the location where I'm located now the building number is [REDACTED] and the apartment number is [REDACTED] he will be able to see that there's a drone on me."
