NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

March 24, 2023

ICMS #: 2023-0229

On March 21, 2023, the OPO received an online complaint.

The complainant alleges: I have been away from home for a little while, a few months. so when i returned home my father was acting out of character by, being rude vulgure and mean towards me. On [REDACTED] my Grandmother passed away, so i couldn't deal with being there. So i went to my fiances house for a few days. [REDACTED] I returned home to my Father rambling about nonsense. So I invited my fiance in. When my father turned around and saw him, he started to act irate. Asking him to leave he complied and walked out the door. But continued yelling at me and becoming more aggressive. He continued to tell My fiance to get out even though he had already stepped out the house. At that point of time he started to shove me and yell at me. So i pushed him to get out of his reach because he has a history of violence with me. He then balled up his fist like he was going to hit me. My fiance yelled at him he better not, that's when he told me I wish you would as in push him again and he was gonna hit me. I went outside to cal the police about the incident. when the police arrived the officer asked what was the problem. so i told him the situation, at this time i was so distraught. The officer asked if my father had pushed or hit me and i told him yes he did. He then kept asking about the situation. My fiance asked the officer since he pushed her isn't that assault. So he asked her if she felt violated by my father pushing me . I replied yes so he asked if i wanted to press charges and i replied yes. He then explains that since its just a misdemeanor no one would be taken to jail. Officer [REDACTED] did not file up with pressing charges after i asked to to file charges , i feel violated and unheard as a citizen and as a woman ,by the actions that was taken your making it seem that it is okay to assault someone by the actions that you took and i don't feel it was acceptable and fair . My father now thinks it is okay to put his hand on me because no action was taken.

Witness info: My fiance was there during the entire altercation. [REDACTED]
