

OFFICE OF POLICE OVERSIGHT

NOTICE OF COMPLAINT

May 20, 2022

ICMS #: 2022-0400

On May 19, 2022, the OPO received a phone complaint.

The complainant alleges: A man invaded the complainant's home and tried to sexually assault his pregnant wife. The arresting officer, [REDACTED], wrote that he would charge the man with more than criminal trespass but he didn't and now the man is back in the complainant's neighborhood where they all live. Officer [REDACTED] was present but the complainant didn't interact with him. [REDACTED] didn't take any statements or collect any evidence. The complainant tried to show [REDACTED] video and pictures of the man but [REDACTED] wouldn't look at them until after they had apprehended the wrong man. The complainant disagrees with the charges, or lack of charges, that were placed against the assailant.

At first the complainant thought the officer didn't know how to do his job but after talking to the detective he thinks they don't care to do their job or don't care about the victims. He had an argument with Detective [REDACTED] when [REDACTED] became belligerent and the complainant had to stop and tell the detective that they should be on the same side. Detective [REDACTED] seemed angry that the complainant posted about the incident online, saying, "I saw your little post on Next Door." The complainant wasn't posting it to make the cops look bad, he was doing it to warn his community about this man. [REDACTED] argued that the complainant doesn't have any evidence when the complainant has video and witness testimony. The complainant has a recording of their conversation. Case [REDACTED]

This notice of complaint is a request for Internal Affairs to initiate an investigation to determine if the employee conduct is within compliance of APD policy, Civil Service Rules, and Municipal Civil Service Rules.
